

Rochester's Central Auto Auction

Credit Establishment Policy Acknowledgement

Rochester's Central Auto Auction performs credit references on all new applicants.

If your bank requires a fee for credit references, the dealer must pay the bank fee.

The completed Credit Reference Authorization Form must be received by Central Auto Auction before you can use checks to purchase vehicles.

When Central Auto Auction receives your credit reference, the auction management will review to determine your pay code and credit limit. Until the auction receives a credit reference, all dealers must pay with cash.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read, understood and will abide by the above Central Auto Auction policy as currently established or as amended from time to time.
